- Attributes: Hunter is very chilled out about most things... But when it comes to style, make no mistake. Her 'thrown together' look is no accident. She's as passionate about clothes as anyone. She's warm, care-free and the master of understated curation. She mixes and matches and loves the joy of the search. Find that one-off piece that no one else will have is her catnip. But she's conscious too. She'd be BFF's with Lady Green.
- Key brands: Loewe, Chloe, unsigned vintage gems
- Key quotes:
 - "Looking expensive doesn't have to be expensive."
 - "The hunt is as exciting as the find."
 - "My look is my own. Even if it's someone else's from a decade ago."
 - "My standards are high when it comes to preloved fashion. I don't want any imitations, I want the real deal. I want to find my one true love... and then maybe another true love. OK, I want to fall in love a few times. But I want them all to be the real deal and live happily ever after. Isn't she just perfect?!"
 - "The beauty of shopping second hand is that you don't find the right clothes, the right clothes find you. "
